From Greece to Belgium, India, China, Vietnam, Wales, Zimbabwe and more...the Pingry community is nothing if not culturally diverse and its rich diversity will be on full, mouth watering display in the fourth annual “A Taste of Pingry” international food festival. Fried, steamed buns, Greek gyros, savory vegetables samosas, freshly baked naan, Jamaican jerk chicken, Korean dumplings, hearty Italian lasagna and buttery French madeleines have been past years favorites, in which over 80 Pingry families shared their culinary traditions. This year’s offerings promise to be equally delicious!

In addition to savoring delectables, visitors can enjoy many other cultural offering and live performances including, the NJ Hellenic Dancers, Mariachi Band, Chinese dance troupe, Japanese Kodo Drummers, traditional Spanish dancers, Jazz Band, live student performances and more.
